GOOD MORNING,

It is so good to see you today!

"1 Timothy 6:20 ..Keep that which is committed to thy trust."

The word "keep" used here in Greek carries with it the idea of a deposit. In those times a man might deposit something with a friend to be kept for his children or his loved ones; he might deposit his valuables in a temple for safekeeping. In the ancient world there was no more sacred duty than the safeguarding of such a deposit and the returning of it when in due time it was claimed. When Christ comes to claim His own, I hope He finds the same faith that was left in Timothy in you and me, and that we've shared that same faith with others. Let's keep what's been committed to our trust!
