GOOD MORNING,
It's so good to see you today!

The author of Ecclesiastes wanted to make sure we know the importance of hope. As long as we're still breathing, we can know good things await us. God calls Himself a God of Hope. When we make Him our God and stay close to Him, there is no end to the goodness we'll receive. He loves us, and wants to pour out His blessings on those who cling to Him. Every step we take leads us closer to the beautiful fulfillment of God's promises of peace and joy, mercy and grace.

"For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope."
Ecclesiastes 9:4a

Welcome
Brother Mike, Sister Boo & their lovely granddaughter
Aubrey!

We are so excited to have old friends come and visit and especially preach for us and it's even better because it gives us a reason to have dinner on the ground after.

Please stay after the preaching today and enjoy some wonderful food and sweet fellowship, then come back tonight to hear Bro. Mike preach for us again!

Easter Sunday

Next Sunday the adult choir will be performing their Easter Cantata that they have been working so hard on at 11am, then in the evening service at 6pm the Youth will be performing their program that they also have worked so hard on. Come and bring someone with you!
