GOOD MORNING,
It's so good to see you today!

The moment Mary broke open the alabaster box containing the fragrant ointment, it's aroma could not be contained. At once, it filled the area around the table, then the whole dining room, and soon, the entire house. Most certainly, the fragrance pleased our Lord Jesus. It revealed Mary's faith in her Savior, her adoration and love for Him. While we might wish we could show our love for our Lord in the same way, that opportunity is not available to us. Our worship and our service, though, can be every bit as heartfelt, every bit as sweet. Our thoughts, words, and actions can – and do – honor Jesus.
